NOTES OF THE PRESS.
The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorial are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and forcible, and are prepared by the best artists. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read at least by half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems. Its illustrations are well drawn, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon existent questions and its inimitable cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.
